Mission Statement

New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary and Leavell College prepare servants to walk with Christ, proclaim His truth, and fulfill His mission.

Core Value Focus

The seminary has five core values.

- 1. Doctrinal Integrity: Knowing that the Bible is the Word of God, we believe it, teach it, proclaim it, and submit to it. This course addresses Doctrinal Integrity specifically by preparing students to grow in understanding and interpreting of the Bible.
- 2. Spiritual Vitality: We are a worshipping community emphasizing both personal spirituality and gathering together as a Seminary family for the praise and adoration of God and instruction in His Word. Spiritual Vitality is addressed by reminding students that a dynamic relationship with God is vital for effective ministry.
- 3. Mission Focus: We are not here merely to get an education or to give one. We are here to change the world by fulfilling the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries. This course addresses Mission Focus by helping students understand the biblical foundations for fulfilling the Great Commission and the Great Commandments.
- 4. Characteristic Excellence: What we do, we do to the utmost of our abilities and resources as a testimony to the glory of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Characteristic Excellence is addressed by preparing students to excel in their ability to interpret Scripture, which is foundational to effective ministry.
- 5. Servant Leadership: We follow the model of Jesus and exert leadership and influence through the nurture and encouragement of those around us. Servant Leadership is modeled by classroom deportment.

The core value focus for the academic year 2019-2020 is Spiritual Vitality.

Curriculum Competencies

NOBTS faculty members realize that all ministers need to develop specific competencies if they are going to have an effective ministry. To increase the likelihood of NOBTS graduates having an effective ministry, the faculty developed a competency-based curriculum after identifying seven essential competencies necessary for effective ministry. All graduates are expected to have at least a minimum level of competency in all of the following areas:

1. Biblical Exposition: to interpret and communicate the Bible accurately.
2. Christian Theological Heritage: To understand and interpret Christian theological heritage and Baptist polity for the church.
3. Disciple Making: To stimulate church health through mobilizing the church for missions, evangelism, discipleship, and church growth.
4. Interpersonal Skills: To perform pastoral care effectively, with skills in communication and conflict management.
5. Servant Leadership: To serve churches effectively through team ministry.
6. Spiritual and Character Formation: To provide moral leadership by modeling and mentoring Christian character and devotion.
7. Worship Leadership: To facilitate worship effectively.

Course Description

The purpose of this course is to expose students to the professional discipline of Christian ministry leadership and administration through interaction with practitioners in the field. A variety of topics will be explored through the annual meeting of the Baptist Association of Christian educators. ~~The 2020 annual meeting of BACE will be held at the Forrest Hills Baptist Church in Nashville, TN (2101 Old Hickory Blvd., Nashville, TN 37215).~~ Students will engage with leaders of Christian education for mentorship and information to lead discipleship in any church setting. REVISED: The conference this year will be held virtually on May 14, 2020 – 9:00 – 5:00 pm. In addition, students will meet virtually with the professor one hour on May 13th. Note: Because of the move to a virtual conference students will not have travel expenses for this year's conference.

Learning Outcomes

The student involved in this course should be able to accomplish the following:

1. Be able to demonstrate knowledge and understanding of current approaches, topics, and available resources for leadership and administration in the local church.
2. Be able to gain skills in the area of analyzing and developing leadership skills in a local church context.
3. Value personal leadership skills and developing leadership skills in other ministry leaders in the church.

Course Teaching Methodology

This course will emphasize observation and listening comprehension skills during the conference sessions and require conversation and analysis skills for assignment completion and discussions.

Assignments and Evaluation Criteria

1. Conference Participation & Outline & Summary:

REVISED
Due: May 29, 2020.

All students (DISC 6192/6292/6392) should complete Assignment 1. The student is expected to participate fully in all conference sessions Thursday through Friday. The student is expected to attend at least one debriefing meeting during a meal time or break time at the conference. (See additional information under Course Schedule.) The student will submit an annotated outline and summary of plenary conferences and breakout conferences attended. It is anticipated that these notes will be typed and at least five pages in length. Formal writing and documentation is not required.

2. Conference Analysis and Reflection

REVISED
Due May 29, 2020

Students taking this course for two or three hours credit (DISC 6292 and 6392) are expected to submit a four page reflection and analysis of the conference sessions and content gleaned. Plans for incorporating or implementing the conference content into their ministry setting should be addressed in the paper.

3. Book Critiques:

Book Critique Date Not REVISED
Due May 9, 2020

DISC 6192 – No book critique required.

DISC 6292 – One book critique from the three textbooks. Student choice.

DISC 6392 – Two book critiques from the three textbooks. REVISED

Write a 2 page single spaced critique for each required textbook. (Note: The critique should begin with a summary of the discipleship strategy presented in the text. Strengths and weakness should then be presented for the local church context for implementing that strategy. The critique should conclude with implications for discipleship in the local church and how the theories or practices presented contribute to carrying out ministries of the local church.

Course Schedule

A conference schedule (The virtual conference will be held on May 14th) is available from the Baptist Association of Christian Educators (baptisteducators.org). In addition students in this special topics seminar will meet with the professor at a time to be determined. This one hour meeting will occur on May 13th. The virtual conference will have four keynote presentations and four breakout conference time selecting from various choices.

Please be aware that students must register for the conference itself as well as enrolling in the selected course. This special topics course will meet at the conference location both days – Thursday and Friday – of the conference. Note: On the website (baptisteducators.org) look for Membership Packages. There is a $55 rate for students that includes the annual membership, the virtual conference, subscription to Ministry Grid, subscription to Right Now Media, and other discounts as well as various training videos and print resources. Obviously, this year there are no travel or lodging expenses.
